

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Boonton, Morris County, New Jersey

This beautiful church is situated at one of the highest points in Boonton and can be seen from miles. The church was organized in 1832 and was known as "the church at Boonton." The bell in front of the church was cracked during the celebration of The Victory of Soissons, France in 1918.

Copyright 1962 - The Scheller Company, Hackettstown, N. J.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

POST CARD

ADDRESS

C-25909